

Please do not supersede the Wisconsin no-call regulations. We like to have some peace at home, just like everyone everyone else, and we cannot have such peace as part of our modest quality of life unless we have the capability to put an end to these interfering marketing calls.